

NARCISSISTIC REGULATION ARCHITECTURE

STRUCTURAL REGULATION FRAMEWORK — PAPER 3, FIGURE 1

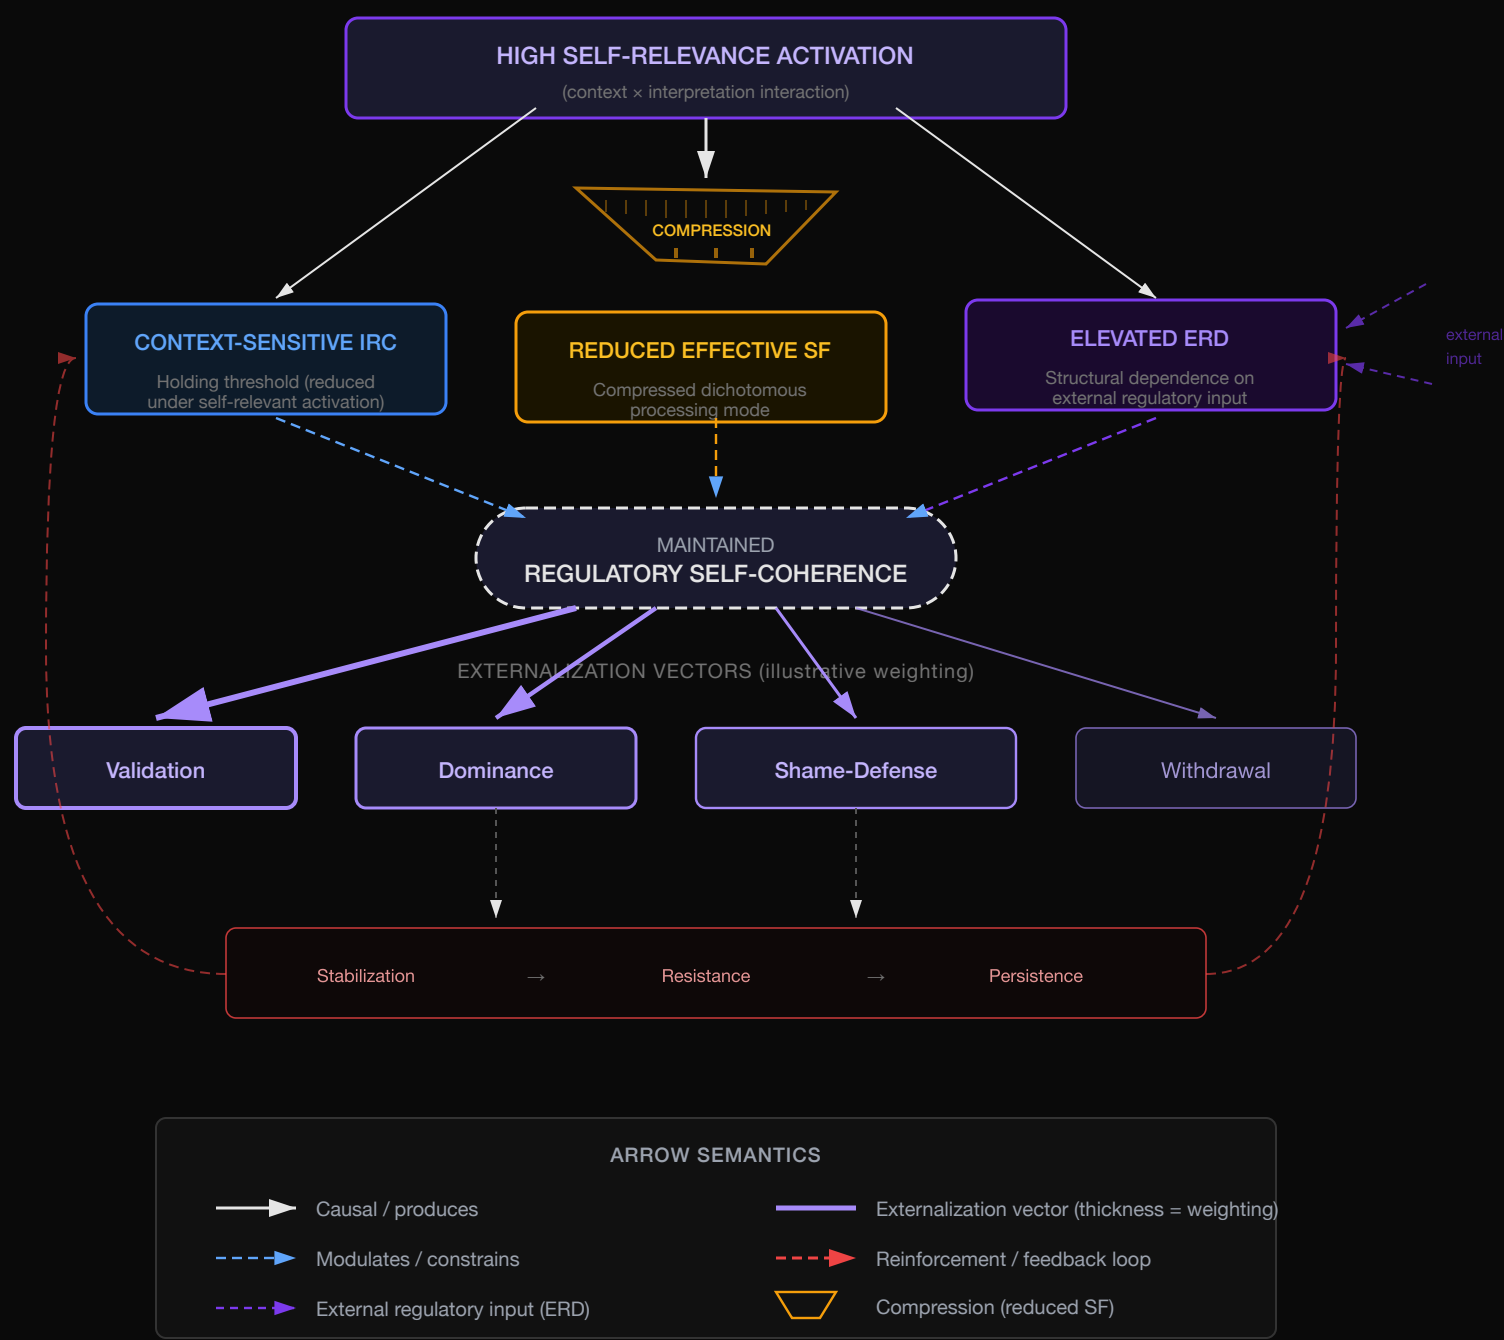

Figure 1. Proposed candidate architecture for narcissistic regulatory organization within SRF. High self-relevance activation passes through a compression stage (reduced SF), interacting with context-sensitive holding capacity and elevated external dependence. Asymmetric vector weighting (illustrative) produces patterned externalization that preserves short-term coherence while reinforcing structural persistence through feedback.